Claudio Jiménez de León

Partner since 2017

Claudio Jimenez has more than 20 years of experience advising national, foreign, public and private companies in their labor relationships with their employees in various industries such as oil & gas, energy, construction, aviation, banking, retail, pharmaceutical, telecommunications, beverages, technology, among others.

Mr. Jimenez has been recognized by Chambers and Partners Latin America as a leader in labor and employment practice in Mexico. Also, the labor and employment practice area led by Mr. Jimenez has also been recommended and recognized by The Legal 500 Guide.

His experience ranges from consultancy, individual and collective litigation, and appeal proceedings (Juicios de Amparo). Mr. Jimenez is constantly involved in high profile employees' termination proceedings and collective termination processes. He also works hand-in-hand with the firms' criminal compliance investigations, M&A and tax practices, providing a comprehensive approach and solutions to our clients by identifying, mitigating, and often times preventing, employment related and labor contingencies.

From 2007 to 2009, Mr. Jimenez worked at Mayer Brown LLP (Houston, Texas office) in the litigation and corporate practice groups.
